We have sufficient funding for START to make it through next week. I will be raising the ceiling on one of the TDDs next week but there is sufficient money obligated to the contract to do that.

R6, R8,

Sorry for the short fuse. Request for information came in from OEM wanting to know if your respective region can sustain operation through next week with your current funding.

I greatly appreciate your input if possible by 10:00 am or earlier tomorrow morning?

I already have R9's feedback, so thank you!

Have a great evening ALL!
